

PARKINSON'S MEDICATION & YOU

PRESENTED BY THE CUMMINGS CENTRE
AND PARKINSON CANADA

Wednesday April 26, 2017
10:30 am - 3 pm
Gelber Conference Centre

BILINGUAL
On-site live interpretation services

Learn about medication to treat Parkinson's disease and the impact of exercise on drug intake. This one-day event will feature both French and English guest speakers, with on-site live interpretation services.

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION:

Treatment of Parkinson's disease with medications: which, when, how and why?

Tejal Patel, BSc Pharm, PharmD, Assistant Clinical Professor,
School of Pharmacy, University of Waterloo

Tejal Patel

COMPLEMENTARY TALK:

Is exercise a good pill for Parkinson's disease?

Paola Campana, PT, Assistant Head of Physiotherapy IUGM

Paola Campana

GUEST PANEL:

Dr. Gwen Spurrll, (retired, MUHC) Hematologist

Peter Schoeler, P.Eng

Michel Richard

Details and advanced registration at www.parkinson.ca/qc426
Information 514.342.1234 x7201 / 1.800.565.3000 x3397

Cost $35 individual / $60 individual and caregiver / $40 professional (Includes access to conferences & the exhibit hall, lunch and refreshments)

5151 Côte-Ste-Catherine, Montreal, QC H3W 1M6

